Update 5/2004: There has been lots of interest in this event, and it will happen and be awesome. It is a little loose like a bush regatta should be, but will be run in accordance with 2004 RRS and NATA Tasar Rules.

Some people may show up Friday night, but we are sticking to a 1:00pm start on Saturday to give people time to get there on Saturday. There are several reserved campsites for those of you who don't get your act together until the last minute, so not having a campsite is not an excuse.

Don't be fooled by the picture above, this is a breezy location!
